Farmers Helping Farmers in Tajikistan

Submitted by jcupp on October 21, 2014

Ross Penhallegon (right), an orchard management expert and professor from Oregon State University, teaches orchard farmers of Khatlon Province in Tajikistan techniques to increase the quality and quantity of their yields. As a Farmer-to-Farmer Program volunteer, he shared his expertise regarding young plant husbandry, grafting, pest and disease control, fertilization, irrigation, pruning and dormant season operations. Photo by USAID
